Recreation Benefit Fund

Scholarship Program for Children

Scholarship Guidelines

The Recreation Benefit Fund (RBF) is a financial assistance program funded by the City of Lynnwood, local businesses and organizations. RBF provides financial support for children 17 years and younger and who are City of Lynnwood residents.

Participants who qualify will receive a 75% discount on fees. The maximum annual benefit per person is $200 as funds are available. Swim passes are limited to 10-visits.

Your child may qualify for RBF if you are in the Free Lunch Program through the Edmonds School District, or have a qualified income level (see income level chart) and live within the Lynnwood city limits.

Be sure to attach the required documentation to determine your eligibility. All applications must be submitted in advance of class start date.

Applications will be approved at the time of submittal depending on staff availability. All approvals are contingent upon available funds.

Information is reviewed and verified by the Recreation Benefit fund staff only; all information is kept confidential.
