80. BUSINESS ITEMS

80.1 Guest Tom Sprague - NONE

80.2 Snohomish County Grant - planning

- F Wong stated that judging from 2019's timeline, we might know about the grant officially in late March. In the meantime, we can be optimistic about the grant and start to look for an artist, and storyboard the comic book.

80.3 Lynnwood People of Interest - project

- We will make this a recurring item at each meeting. If photographs are found, please send to F Wong.
- C. Ryan reported that she met up with Erin of the Lynnwood Times, who was looking to do an article for Women's History Month. C. Ryan suggested Betty Gaeng & Marie Little.

80.4 Future programs – planning (HH Day in July)

- F. Wong reported that there is usually one HH Day per month during the summer. Staff discussed having just one this year on Saturday July 10.
- Discussion among HHB members concerning the ribbon cutting for the Interurban 55 during the day.

80.5 Signal Box Art Wrap - Idea

- F. Wong stated that he and Sarah Olson talked about a Signal Box to commemorate COVID 2020: Faces of COVID. Members like the idea that the box will feature first responders, essential workers, etc.

80.6 Lynnwood Historic Registry (files)

- K. Brewer requested information on the Historic Registry and where he can find it. F. Wong thought it was a work-in-progress and that only one building is on it.
- C. Ryan stated that the former Historical Commission established it, but not sure if it went forward. She will go through Marie Little's records to see if there are any papers/references.

90. FUTURE BUSINESS - None
