Proclamation

City of Lynnwood

Public Procurement Month
March 2021

WHEREAS, public procurement and contracting professions play a significant role in the efficiency and effectiveness of both government and business; and

WHEREAS, through their combined purchasing power, public procurement professionals spend billions of dollars every year and have a significant influence upon economic conditions throughout the region, the state, and nationally; and

WHEREAS, public procurement and contract management professionals dedicate themselves to providing the best value for every taxpayer dollar, and continue to expand their knowledge, skills and abilities; and

WHEREAS, public procurement and contract management professionals conduct outreach efforts to provide contracting opportunities to a diverse group of business partners, manage competition for public contracts with the highest standards of fairness and ethics, and strive to create and support efficiencies; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that I, Mayor Nicola Smith, proclaim March 2021 as Public Procurement Month in the City of Lynnwood, and I call upon all citizens and civic organizations to acquaint themselves with the value of public procurement, and to recognize the contributions which Public Procurement professionals make every day towards the success of our City.
