RESOURCES FOR COMMUNITY MEMBERS:

City of Lynnwood Utility Billing: The City of Lynnwood will not be shutting off water due to lack of payment during the COVID-19 crisis. Please contact Utility Billing staff members if you need to make payment arrangements. Call 425-670-5000 and press 0 or visit www.LynnwoodWA.gov/UB.

Snohomish County PUD: Any customer in need can call PUD Customer Service at 425-783-1000 and representatives can help make payment arrangements. The PUD will not disconnect customers for late payment at this time but advises customers to continue regular payments to avoid falling behind. The PUD offers discount programs for income-qualified customers. These programs include provisions to help in situations of sudden job loss.

Puget Sound Energy: We know some of our business and residential customers might be worried about paying their bills. Here are measurable actions we’ve taken on behalf of our customers: 1-888-225-5773 or visit www.PSE.com

- PSE will not be disconnecting customers during this time.
- PSE received approval from the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission for a waiver that allows PSE to waive late fees.

- PSE will work with our customers on options such as payment plans and choosing a new bill due date.
- PSE launched a new energy assistance portal to improve access to funds available to low income customers.
- In order to help our community partners, the PSE Foundation, which is a nonprofit entity operating independently of PSE but helps the communities PSE serves, is donating $250,000 to support relief efforts in the community through the Seattle Foundation as well as donating to foodbanks to cover emergency preparations.

Lynnwood Food Bank: The Lynnwood Food Bank is committed to serving the community through this time. Call or visit their website for pick up times. 425-745-1635 or <http://www.lynnwoodfoodbank.org/>

Homage Senior Services: Serving seniors and older adults. Call 1-800-442-2024 or visit <https://homage.org/>.

Edmonds School District: The School District Food and Nutrition Department plans to continue to provide meals to all children during the school closures. There are several school site locations that any child can come and get a grab-and-go breakfast and lunch at no cost.
