Status Update:

- COVID Case Rate Climbs Again: This week, we are seeing and increase in case rates. This is a good reminder that we must remain vigilant in all that we are doing to help slow the spread of COVID-19. We can do better. Wear a mask. Avoid crowds and do not gather with others outside of your home. Wash your hands. Even one good choice can make a huge difference.

- COVID Restrictions: Governor Jay Inslee has extended current COVID restrictions for an additional week, until January 11th.

- Eviction Moratorium: Governor Jay Inslee has extended the Eviction Moratorium through at least March 31, 2021. Additionally, he has extended the moratorium on service disconnects and late fees through April 30, 2021 for all energy, landline telephone and water utilities.
- State reports continued progress in distributing COVID vaccines: The Washington State Department of Health reports that it continues to make progress with COVID-19 vaccine distribution and administration efforts. DOH last week updated phase 1A guidance, with the goal of expediting vaccine administration efforts across Washington state. It followed up with a statement emphasizing the importance of rapid, well-coordinated vaccine distribution.

As of the end of December, 69,349 people in Washington had received their first dose of vaccine. As a reminder, all vaccine recipients must receive two doses of vaccine from the same manufacturer for maximum protection against COVID-19.

The table below is a snapshot of the vaccine supply for Washington state as of Dec 31.

Vaccine brand	Total number ordered	Total number in transit	Total number delivered	Total number administered*	Percent administered*
Pfizer	111,150	0	111,150	56,236	51.0%
Moderna	171,800	100	171,700	13,106	7.6%
Long-term care facilities (Pfizer)	75,075	0	75,075	-	-
Total	358,025	100	357,925	69,349	19.4%
Numbers as of	Dec. 30 at 11:20 a.m.	Dec. 30 at 11:21 a.m.	Dec. 30 at 11:21 a.m.	Dec. 29 at 11:59 p.m.	(Total administered divided by total delivered)

*DOH will receive administration data up to 72 hours after vaccines are administered at provider sites.

- Snohomish Health District launched newsletter to share COVID-19 info for multicultural communities: In an effort to better communicate information about the COVID-19 pandemic to all residents of Snohomish County, the Snohomish County Joint Information Center has launched a new email newsletter to share available materials and resources.

This newsletter will be used to periodically share updated information and new translated materials and/or graphics that may be helpful for our partners and community organizations throughout Snohomish County.

To subscribe, go to www.snohd.org/notifyme and sign up for COVID-19 Information for Multicultural Communities under the "Notify Me" heading. See the first edition here: <https://cvcpl.us/iA0ruMv>.

- Vaccinations begin for first responders in Snohomish County: Among the first people in Snohomish County to receive COVID-19 vaccinations are firefighters and emergency medical first responders who have been providing direct care for COVID patients. Some firefighters, including union members of the Everett and Arlington Fire Departments, took to social media over the weekend to share their experience with the first of two doses of vaccine.
